Subject: RE: AEC referral [DLM=For-Official-Use-Only]

For Official Use Only

Hello Roger.

All of that is okay from our point of view. The obvious caveat being that the 42 is not public knowledge and should not be divulged, publicly or privately of course.

I understand our Commissioner was going to advise the Special Minister of State (under whom the AEC sits) simply along the lines of a referral of a potential number of multi-voters being accepted for action by the AFP. I don't think we were going to mention the specific number of cases being examined, and the Special Minister is already aware of the margin of 35 as that is, as you say, already public knowledge.

Regards
Pablo

For-Official-Use-Only

G'day again Pablo,
Just letting you know we are preparing a MinBrief for our Minister on this. Are you comfortable with us stating you have referred 42 incidents of alleged multiple voting to us? Further, in our Min Brief we mention the formal recount of ballot papers indicate a margin of 35 votes. Do you have any issues with us stating that? We understand the 35 vote margin is public knowledge.
Cheers,

Roger

G'day Pablo,

Your referral has been received and accepted.

We are today deploying investigators to Townsville. Once sorted in situ, they will commence local enquiries, with the forthcoming weekend being targeted for approaches to those 42 persons identified by AEC as having voted twice.

As things progress we'll keep you updated.

Cheers,

Roger

Good morning roger.

Just touching base.

Anything by way of an update in terms of where things are at from your side? Our Commissioner asked for an update in terms of "next steps", so anything you can advise that we can share in terms of timing, broad process etc would be appreciated.

A brief Email response would be fine, or a quick call - and if you can't reach me, Anna Robinson is available on 7 [REDACTED]

Thanks again

Pablo
