the image displayed here is the proposed registered party logo for Gerard Rennick People First:

Gerard Rennick People First's application included: a letter from Senator Gerard Rennick supporting its registration; that it wishes to receive election funding; a logo in PDF format; a copy of its constitution; and payment of the $500 application fee. The application also included a letter of consent from the registered officer of Family First Party Australia for the use of the word 'First' in the party name and logo.

You may lodge an objection to the application from Gerard Rennick People First under the following grounds in the Electoral Act:

- the application does not relate to an eligible political party;
- the application is not in accordance with section 126;
- the application should be refused under section 129; or
- the Electoral Commission should refuse to enter a logo of the party in the Register of Political Parties under section 129A.

Objections must be received by the AEC by 21 November 2024, must address the relevant criteria above, be in writing and include your name, a street address, signature and the grounds for your objection. Objections can be sent to:
