

Application for registration of a non-Parliamentary party

Completing this form

- This application is for use by political parties who have no members in the federal Parliament and wish to register a political party to contest elections for the Senate and/or House of Representatives. A registered political party can have its registered party name, registered abbreviation or registered logo printed on the ballot papers next to the name of its endorsed candidates.
- Further information is provided in the Guide for registering a party available at www.aec.gov.au.
- This form is to be completed with reference to the Guide for registering a party.
- Information on this form is collected under the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 (Electoral Act).
- The application is a public document during the registration process. After that, the public information is restricted to the party name, abbreviation, registered logo, postal address, website, election funding choice and the name and address of the registered officer.
- A new party with a member in the Senate or House of Representatives should use the form—Application for registration by a Parliamentary party.
- If you wish to register a political party to contest State or Territory elections, please contact your local State or Territory electoral commission.

Name of political party

Please enter the party name exactly as you wish it to appear on the Register. This exact name can also be printed on ballot papers.

Abbreviation of party

This exact abbreviation is an alternative to be printed on ballot papers
