Dear Mr Davey and Mr Howe,

It has come to my attention that three documents supplied by Mr Howe as part of his submission regarding the applications to change the registered officer and secretary of the Australian Democrats were not included on the USB drive which was mail to you both on 08 April 2013.

I sincerely apologise for this oversight.

I have attached the documents to this email for your comment.

In order to expedite this process it would be appreciated if you could provide any comments on these documents to the AEC by close of business Thursday 02 May 2013. This will allow the submissions and comments to be put to a delegate as promptly as possible for decision.

Kind regards,

Dear Ms Greer

Thank you for your advice in the email from FAD@aec.gov.au signed by Alex Lewis, received on 29/4/13.

Given the seriousness of the issue, I would not object if the time allowed for further review is extended beyond 2nd May 2013 to a further reasonable period determined at your discretion.

Yours sincerely,
