Dear Australian Electoral Commission,

I'm writing to voice my disgust at the name selected for Canberra's newest electorate.

To chose the name Bean; a white, male anti-semetic over that of Cullen; an Indigenous, female activist in this day and age is terribly poor form. I find this decision extremely sad for such a forward thinking and inclusive city that Canberra is. I sincerely hope the AEC reconsiders this decision and makes the positive change to name Canberra's new electorate after a strong and inspiring Australian woman.

Yours sincerely,

Hannah Barrett
