AEC

I agree with many of the submissions that Berowra should be abolished as the AEC has indicated that one electorate in NSW needs to be axed. The nearby electorates of Bradfield, Bennelong, Parramatta, Mitchell, Macquarie, and Mackellar can all take portions of the old seat of Berowra. Mitchell can grab the rest of Castle Hill and its surrounds, meaning that the whole suburb will be under one electorate. Penant Hills and Cherrybrook can join Bennelong with Reid then taking extra suburbs on Bennelong's southern border. Bradfield can take on Hornsby and its surrounds like Westleigh and Mount Colah, as well as Berowra Heights. Mitchell can take on Dural, Galston, and Glenhaven. MacQuarie can take on Maroota, Wisemans Ferry, and Glenorie. This will all be without geographical compromise and will look great on the map. I support the suggestions of Stephen Lesslie 's23', Ben Last 's19', Damien Ferri 's40', Michael Albert Hedger 's7' among others to make such changes.

Kind Regards
