Objection to electorate redistribution

I wish to object the redistribution of North Sydney electorate. I have studied the new proposed boundaries, which would mean the end of this electorate and allocation of parts of it to various neighbouring electorates. The part of the electorate where I live would become part of Bradfield. My suburb, Castlecrag, has virtually no connection with that part of the North Shore. My local government area, Willoughby, ends at Boundary Road and does not include Roseville or points north. The other centres that I visit for professional or recreational reasons include Crows Nest, North Sydney and Artarmon, all of which are presently part of the North Sydney electorate. In my opinion, it would make more sense to extend the boundary of North Sydney north as far as Boundary Road, thus taking in the whole of Chatswood district. I do not feel part of Bradfield, culturally or geographically. I presently have strong connections with my electorate and my Member of Parliament and I do not wish to have any change in this relationship.
