As part of a determination on Thursday 27 July 2023 of the number of members of the "House of Representatives" to which each state and territory will be entitled at the next federal general election, the Electoral Commissioner determined New South Wales' entitlement decreased from 47 to 46 members of the House of Representatives.

I would like to know if the greens objected, I am sure they didn't.

You can call it by anything, but the simple, straightforward name for it is gerrymandering. Have you heard about it? I'm sure you ignorant, idiots haven't.

It is difficult to get a man to understand something, when his salary depends on his not understanding it."

Just one correction you guys are not men or women. A person has to have certain principles and values in their life. Yours is flexible.

I would like you chair bugs living on public welfare to explain to me why I can't call it "gerrymandering"

Thank you

Hi,

I'm trying to convince you that the corrupt politicians (ie The idiots in the parliament) from all major parties should not have any say in the redistribution. Why would you think they are smart enough to understand the complexities in redistribution. They hire people ($300000/yr) for writing speeches, get drunk (with our money) and sleep in the roadside. The leader pig (Albo) , hope you have read animal farm, increase rent for his tenant and kick him out. All they want is to keep independents out of parliament. So I strongly reject the gerrymandering and , want you to reinstate north Sydney
