I live in Epping and for the first time in many, many years we are having excellent representation by Jerome Lexale in the Federal Parliament. He is very hard-working and available, without fuss, for appointments. The thought of someone like Dominique Perrott, who is in state parliament (apparently), fills me with dread; to a constituent he was totally useless and seemingly has disappeared without trace even though he is, supposedly, our local representative.

Please can we keep Jerome Lexale.

Sincerely
Kathryn Chivers
