Introduction

The purpose of this Comment on Suggestions is to endorse the proposed abolishment of Hotham as suggested in Suggestions 53 and 63, reinforcing concerns regarding the serious flaws in enrolment projections as raised in Suggestion 63, as well as presenting a detailed proposal of redistribution for the remaining 38 Victorian electoral divisions.

Why abolish Hotham?

First and foremost, naming divisions after colonial-era persons, which are predominantly European white men, have become an outdated practice and no longer reflects the modern Australian society that increasingly values reconciliation as well as gender, cultural and ethnic diversity. Therefore, when renaming or abolishing divisions, considerations should be given to retire divisions named for colonial-era men of European descent in favour of divisions named for more contemporary or diverse individuals, especially women and indigenous Australians.

Apart from names of colonial persons that should be avoided as much as possible, geographic names should also generally be avoided according to AEC guidelines. Given that one division must be abolished, all other criteria being considered, the candidates for division names to be retired are selected from colonial-era or geographic names.

There are currently six Victorian divisions named after explorers and pioneers from the colonial era:

FLINDERS, GELLIBRAND, HOTHAM, LA TROBE, LALOR and WILLS.

The division of Hotham was named after Sir Charles Hotham, Governor of Victoria 1854–55 and the first Governor of Victoria. Hotham is a little-known name and has not been commemorated elsewhere as the name of a major road, university or municipality, compared to other colonial names like La Trobe and Flinders. Therefore, there's a strong case for retiring the name Hotham as a division name.

Flaws in enrolment projections

Another reason why I recommend Hotham to be abolished is due to the slower actual enrolment growth among Southern and Eastern Melbourne electorates compared to Northern and Western Melbourne electorates (see chart 1), and the need to fill the enrolment shortfalls in inner and middle Southern and Eastern Melbourne electorates.

Rates of actual and projected enrolment growth for all Victorian electorates are listed in Chart 1. The chart shows that electorates in the outer west, outer north and outer south-east of Melbourne were the fastest growing electorates in Victoria in the past year, while Southern and Eastern Melbourne electorates and most regional electorates (except Corangamite) grew much slower. If an electorate in the fast-growing areas is abolished, its neighbouring electorates will quickly grow to more than 10% over the statewide average well before 17 April 2028. For example, Suggestions 25 and 57 both propose to abolish McEwen and rename Casey to McEwen. The consequence of doing so is that neighbouring fast-growing electorates, especially Hawke and Calwell, will quickly grow to more than 10% above the statewide average well before 17 April 2028.

As has been raised in Suggestion 63, it should raise suspicions that an electorate like Calwell – in Melbourne’s fast growing outer North – which has grown by 6.74% in the past year alone, is now projected to grow at 1.81% per year to the April 2028 projection date. By contrast, Nicholls – in regional Northern Victoria – whose enrolment declined by 0.15% in the past year, is now projected to grow at 1.63%, a rate close to that of Calwell.

Chart 1 Rates of actual and projected enrolment growth for Victorian electorates, sorted from the fastest growing to the slowest growing Enrolment projection figures show between 9 August 2023 and 17 April 2028, Calwell's enrolment growth rate is projected to rank 25th out of 39 electorates, even behind Kooyong, while actual enrolment data shows Calwell's enrolment grew by 7287 or 6.74% between 31 July 2022 and 9 August 2023, while Kooyong's enrolment declined by 49 during the same period.

Actual enrolment data shows enrolment for each electorate growing from between -0.15% to 7.77% in the past year, but the enrolment projection figures predict the annual average growth rate for all electorates to be within a very narrow range of 1.48% to 2.17%.

To remedy these flaws, I agree with Suggestion 63 that we should use the full range of tolerance available in order to bridge the gap between the current set of enrolment projections and the likely actual growth rates in enrolment. This means slow-growing electorates in Regional Victoria and Melbourne's inner and middle Southern and Eastern suburbs should be targeted towards a deviation of +3.5% due to their likely overestimation in projected enrolment. Similarly, fast-growing divisions in Melbourne's outer-suburban fringes should be targeted towards a deviation of -3.5% so that they have room to grow beyond the stagnant projections they have been given.

Lack of community of interest

Hotham does not have a coherent community of interest. It is made up of four pieces coming from four different municipalities: City of Monash, City of Glen Eira, City of Kingston and City of Greater Dandenong, with each piece covering only a small part of the municipality it belongs to. This provides a strong case for dismembering Hotham and divide its parts among surrounding electorates depending on the municipality each part belongs to.

I propose that: The division name of HOTHAM be retired.

In the next section I will present my detailed proposal for the redistribution of all 38 electoral divisions in Victoria, including for each division summary of boundary changes, current and projected enrolment figures, and map of proposed division. Additional comments are added for some divisions to provide comparison with Suggestions 53 and 63.

Comment:

Both my proposal and Suggestion 53 moves Chisholm significantly south to make it focus almost exclusively on the City of Monash LGA by shedding all parts north of Burwood Highway (Suggestion 53) or Highbury Road (my suggestion). Highbury Road forms the boundary between Monash and Whitehorse LGAs. By contrast, suggestion 63 does not move Chisholm significantly south, with the proposed Chisholm still including a large part north of Highbury Road in the City of Whitehorse.

Cooper:

Summary of boundary changes:

Gains the remainder of Clifton Hill - Alphington SA2 from Melbourne, gains part of Bundoora - East SA2 south of Grimshaw Street from Jagajaga. Loses the parts of Coburg North SA2 and Coburg - East SA2 that are in Cooper to Wills.

- Kingsbury SA2 boundary
- Existing divisional boundary with Jagajaga

Map of proposed division:

Comment:

I endorse the proposal put forward in Suggestion 53 of keeping the Jewish-heavy communities in the Caulfield area into the new Higgins to create a larger community of interest. My proposal puts the suburbs of Caulfield North, Caulfield and Caulfield South into the new Higgins. I leave the Elsternwick SA2 in Macnamara to keep both Macnamara and Higgins within quota.

Comment:

Both Suggestion 53 and Suggestion 63 make Kooyong coextensive with the City of Boroondara. However, the approach I have taken is to extend Kooyong further into the City of Whitehorse, taking in Box Hill South and part of Burwood north of Highbury Road. I did this taking into consideration that Kooyong mainly gained voters from the east in the three most recent redistributions and the fact that the Camberwell, Canterbury, Surrey Hills and Box Hill areas share the same major railway line (Belgrave/Lilydale railway line). Camberwell also shares the same Route 70 and 75 tram routes and many bus routes with Burwood. Monique Ryan and her team could also be seen at festivals in Box Hill, which means she and her team have already expected Kooyong to expand east to take in areas in and around Box Hill.

Map of proposed division:

Comment:

The proposed division of Melbourne in Suggestion 53 does not cross the Yarra and is 311 voters short of the lower bound of the required range of projected enrolment. Suggestion 53 proposes two solutions to solve Melbourne's shortfall, one of which is to make Melbourne cross the Yarra by transferring the remainder of Docklands SA2 from Macnamara to Melbourne. I think this makes sense because the the City of Melbourne LGA itself crosses the Yarra, therefore in my proposal I put all areas of City of Melbourne LGA south of the Yarra (except South Yarra - West SA2) in Melbourne, which allows Melbourne to in turn shed some of its northernmost parts to Wills and Cooper to make up their shortfalls.

Menzies:

Summary of boundary changes:

Gains the part of Blackburn SA2 that is in Chisholm and Box Hill SA2 between Whitehorse Road and Canterbury Road from Chisholm. Gains the part of Blackburn SA2 that is in Deakin from Deakin. Gains the part of Box Hill North SA2 that is in Kooyong and the part of Surrey Hills (East) - Mont Albert SA2 that is north of Whitehorse Road from Kooyong. Loses Warrandyte - Wonga Park SA2 and the part of Research - North Warrandyte SA2 that is in Menzies to Jagajaga.

Description of new divisional boundary:

Clockwise follow:

- Yarra River
- Warrandyte - Wonga Park SA2 boundary

Comment:

I don't see the case for separating the Mount Baw Baw region SA2 with the rest of the Shire of Baw Baw and put it in other electorates as proposed in Suggestions 53 and 63. The idea of tearing the Mount Baw Baw region apart from the rest of the Baw Baw Shire just doesn't make sense to me. In fact, the boundary between Monash and Gippsland mostly align with LGA boundaries and there's no compelling case for changing it. Considering this and the fact that Gippsland is projected to be just 0.4% below projected enrolment quota, I recommend that Gippsland's boundary remains unchanged.
