To whom it may concern,

As a resident and business owner in Higgins, I am concerned to hear the AEC is considering abolishing the seat of Higgins. Our former Federal member, Katie Allen, has been working tirelessly to listen to business owners in this electorate and has for years been a strong advocate for her constituents' needs. Locals want one strong advocate– not have their representation divided amongst five Federal Members of Parliament. Abolishing Higgins will fragment our community's representation in Canberra.

Further to that, Higgins (which fully incorporates a strong community of interest - the local government area of Stonnington City Council) is proud of its history as a seat of Prime Ministers and Treasurers.

Please keep Higgins as is. Thank you

Stay Tuned,
Karen Kim Director
