To whom it may concern.

The attempt to abolish the seat of Higgins is political motivated and don't say it's not because it is, dividing the seat of Higgins would mean more of an opportunity for an extra 2 more Labor MP's because Labor can't win the seat of Higgins themselves so they have to divide it instead of playing fairly the way things are and you the Australian Electoral Commission are suppose to be fair you lot are nothing but cheating dishonest thugs no better than that flog John Setka.

Kind Regards James
