Dear Sir/Madam,

The seats have a long history that is important to the area. Australia is losing its history and culture with too much change occurring to traditional inner eastern suburbs that does not suit the style of the areas and country.

The change is unnecessary, individuals with long held property interests in the area do not want the change when there are more important matters to focus on and no expense should be spent on these waste of time exercises.

It seems that the proposal to the abolition of Higgins is occurring for nefarious political purposes that is totally inappropriate.

Yours faithfully,

G. MacDougall
