To. AUSTRALIAN ELECTORAL COMMISSION

Having lived in the Higgins electorate for many years, we were astonished to hear about the proposed abolition of Higgins. We do not want our seat abolished and do not want our representation divided amongst five Federal members of Parliament.

As long term members of The Liberal Party, my wife and I supported Kattie Allen's bid for preselection for Higgins, which she subsequently won. This proposed redistribution negates her position. Higgins has a proud history as a seat of past Prime Ministers and Treasurers.

I trust you will consider our objections.

Yours faithfully

Alan & Susie Stileman
