Dakin, Hugh - Redistribution ACT - Submission on the proposed ACT redistribution

Submission on the proposed ACT redistribution details

Category: Names
Details: Geographical areas (as electorates) should be named after geographical spaces, as is normal and commonsensical in most of the democratic world, instead of the bizarre you-describe-it system Australia favours (to confuse and uninform the electorate? to ingratiate obscure polities?) - rather, lets keep it simple, logical and sensible and call them ACT north, ACT central and ACT south - amazing! even the average ACT resident would then understand it!
